“As the children grow up and leave, we continue to take in other children... children who have been abandoned, neglected, and abused. As each child arrives, the process starts anew with the involvement of all at Chain of Love... to heal their wounds and move them on in life.”

Defend the cause of the weak and fatherless; maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed. Rescue the weak and needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked.

Chain of Love

Chain of Love

Being “home” for nearly ninety young people not only comes with a lot of responsibility, but a significant price tag.

How Can I Help?

Chain of Love exists because of donations from individuals and churches in Brazil and North America. We need your help to maintain this vital ministry that has rescued Gabriela, Kateana, and more than 180 others since its inception.

We invite you to join us in this Kingdom work. Please consider these important ways to pledge your support.

Sponsorship

Be the next link in the Chain of Love! With an annual pledge of $360 per child USD/CAD you can sponsor one of our precious children. Sponsors receive bi-monthly updates on the Chain of Love ministry, specific updates on their sponsored child, and personalized thank-you letters when the children receive optional gifts of money or packages from you.

General Fund

The General Fund supports operational expenses such as vehicle and campus maintenance, medical and dental needs, and other expenses that the sponsorship funds do not cover.

Excitable, Intelligent, and Happy

This is Gabriela and Kateana, two very special young ladies who are part of the Chain of Love ministry. Theirs was a rough start... their parents died when they were young. When we welcomed them three years ago they had little education, were malnourished, and tended to be very quiet.

Today, if you met Gabriela and Kateana, you'd never guess their background. These excitable, intelligent, happy teenagers enjoy life at Chain of Love Homes. It's no surprise... they flourish on everything we offer: education, healthcare, counseling, spiritual growth opportunities, a mother and father figure, and a happy household of siblings.

What We Do

Located in the southern Brazil city of Campo Bom since 1994, Chain of Love provides loving, secure, and caring homes for abandoned and abused children and adolescents. We meet their physical, spiritual, and social needs until they are mature enough to function independently. Every resource invested in this important ministry benefits them, be it something as simple as gas for the church bus or lights in the gym for after-school soccer.

Fast Facts

- We accept children from birth to age twelve. Under normal circumstances, they stay with us until mature enough to function independently.
- We maintain group homes so homeless children can live with caring Christian houseparents.
- We provide nutritious meals and loving supervision, as well as moral and biblically based spiritual guidance.
- We teach, and expect the children to be: respectful, responsible, and accountable.
- We design programs to provide a formal education and assistance in career planning.
