

CHAIN OF LOVE HOMES, BRAZIL

Dear Praying Partners of Chain of Love

May, 2007

Greetings from Chain of Love Homes in Brazil where the weather is starting to get a little colder as we move into our fall season.

Ardath Effa is no longer looking after Chain of Love's sponsor communications. We are extremely grateful for the excellent service she gave. Now, the responsibility is on us, the Kidd family: Christopher and Ingrid (with children, Elizabeth and Anthony). So please direct all correspondence related to your sponsorship to me (contact information below).

We have been in Brazil for just over a year learning Portuguese. We live in Porto Alegre, a city about an hour's drive from the homes. We will be able to move close to Chain of Love in Campo Bom fairly soon as we purchased a house there and are waiting for the owners to move out in the next 20–30 days. Interested in finding out more about our family and how we came to be in Brazil? Please visit www.freedom-quest.ca/kids.

As we walk, talk, and love the Chain of Love children, it is hard to imagine what they came from. They are beautiful children and for many, the anger and hate that once characterized them has gone, for they allowed God to come into their lives and change them. We have personal stories about these children: "For the Love of God's Kids" has just been published about Chain of Love, written by Wally Dennison, 208-543 Rowcliffe Ave., Kelowna, BC V1Y 5Y8, dennison@okanagan.net. The cost is $27.95 plus shipping. All proceeds go to Chain of Love. You can order from him or from www.essencebookstore.com.

Please remember that the sponsorship rates are $30 CAD per month or $25 USD per month. For your convenience, please consider the option of contributing by electronic fund transfer (EFT) or by credit card. Either option makes our work much easier. We can supply information on either option.

The last house is coming along well; great progress was made with work teams from Calgary, Edmonton, and North Dakota. It is almost ready except for landscaping, painting, and connecting utilities. A HUGE thank you to those who helped accelerate this project!

An amazing thing happened in April: Thirteen Chain of Love kids were baptized at Ken and Jeri's church! We'll focus on this in next month's newsletter and will continue the house parents feature. We feel so privileged to be a part of this amazing ministry and want to serve as the bridge between the ministry and our faithful sponsors.
